Congratulation Letter

Dear Dr. Tommy Ho,

We are most delighted to learn that your company is celebrating its 10th Year Anniversary in the business. Congratulations on achieving such a milestone with great success.

During all those years, you have done a lot to help our community by providing quality professional service, and of course, promoting credibility to the local academic and professional societies. Your company has one of the best reputations in the society. Communicating with you is such a pleasure.

We are looking forward to having a fruitful collaboration with you in the coming years.

Sincerely,

For and on behalf of TSP International Limited
